

Jeff Haywood
Partner
Spectrum Equity

Jeff Haywood is co-head of Spectrum Equity's investing efforts across healthcare, focusing on high-growth internet-enabled software and data services companies serving all parts of the healthcare industry.

Jeff joined the firm in 2007 and currently serves on the board of Definitive Healthcare (NASDAQ: DH), VBA, RxVantage, and Membersy. He also led Spectrum's investment in PWNHealth and subsequent sale to Everlywell, where he continues as a board observer. Jeff was previously involved with GoodRx (NASDAQ: GDRX), Payer Compass (acquired by Zelis Healthcare), Net Health (acquired by The Carlyle Group), Verisys (acquired by Aperture Health), Passport Health Communications (acquired by Experian), and MedHOK (acquired by Hearst Health).