SVP, Strategic Integration
Mercy

Dave Thompson serves as Mercy's senior vice president of strategic integration. He joined Mercy in 2020 and has helped design many of Mercy's current value-based contracts with their powerful combination of quality, safety, and reduced cost for payers, and most importantly, Mercy patients. Prior to joining Mercy, he worked for 20 years in various financial and operational roles within the healthcare industry. Thompson holds a bachelor's degree in accounting with an emphasis in management information systems from Oklahoma State University.
