

Michael Feighan
Global Head of Technical Underwriting
AIG Accident & Health

Michael Feighan is the Global Head of Technical Underwriting at AIG A&H. Michael has worked in the Accident & Health industry for 40 years, primarily in underwriting, but also in marketing and product development. Prior to rejoining AIG (his third time!), he was at Aspen Insurance as US Head of Accident & Health. Previously, he managed the Corporate US A&H business at AIG and at Cigna, and headed Underwriting worldwide at Chubb A&H.

Outside of Underwriting, Michael was the A&H lead at AIG Product Development, and Chief Marketing Officer at Chubb Accident & Health. Additionally, he's been on the broker side, representing corporate and consumer clients at Johnson & Higgins and Seabury & Smith, both now part of Marsh & McLennan.

Michael is a graduate of Fordham University with a BA in Economics. He was also twice the President of the American Special Risks Association.
