

Dieter Gistelinck
Managing Director, Global EB Alliance
Multinational Benefits & HR Consulting Practice
Gallagher Risk & Reward, LLP

Dieter is based in Brussels and as a Managing Director Global EB Alliances in the Multinational Benefits & Human Resources Consulting Practice (MBHRC) is responsible for the development of the Gallagher Global Benefits Management solutions including the design, financing, delivery, and central governance for our multinational clients worldwide, delivered through the Gallagher Global EB Network and Alliances.

Dieter has over 20 years of international benefits experience and has lived and worked in London, Madrid, and Brussels. He has held several senior management and executive committee positions at multinational pooling networks and large global consultancies.

During his career, he has worked with many European and US regional headquarters of mega and complex multinationals worldwide and provided advice to their regional or global headquarters across all areas of global benefits management, focused on the design and financing dimensions.

Dieter is a frequent speaker at global insurance network panels and industry events such as IEBA or CBBA. He is a recognized industry subject matter expert on global benefits financing. He holds a diploma from the University of Malaga, Spain. Having lived and worked in 4 countries, Dieter is fluent in Dutch, French, Spanish, English, and Finnish.