

Lorraine Stack
Managing Director
Risk Management Leader, Europe
Marsh Captive Solutions

Lorraine was appointed Risk Management Leader, Europe on February 1, 2024, is based in Dublin, and reports to Christos Adamantiadis, CEO, and Carolina Klint, Chief Commercial Officer, Marsh McLennan Europe.

In her new role, Lorraine has overall responsibility for Marsh's portfolio of large European clients, supporting them in managing their risk and insurance programmes. She also works closely with Marsh's Risk Management leaders to develop a unified client strategy across the region, with a key focus on collaboration and growth to position Marsh as the foremost risk advisor for the future.

Prior roles include Consulting Leader with the Marsh Captive Solutions International Practice, and Head of Office, Dublin Captive Management. Lorraine has significant experience in employee benefit captive implementation and is a specialist advisor in the area.

In her 27 years with Marsh, Lorraine has assisted a number of high-profile captive clients through complex transactions including a ground-breaking employee benefit captive programme. Lorraine was also the Global Employee Benefits Leader for Marsh Captive Solutions.

Lorraine has over 30 years' experience in the insurance industry in the United States and Europe. Lorraine was with Marsh Captive Solutions for over 20 years, prior to which she was a casualty broker in the Marsh Boston office in the United States. Prior to joining Marsh, Lorraine held underwriting positions with AIG in the United States and with Royal Sun Alliance in Ireland.
