

Ben Freeberg
Founder and Managing Partner
Oncology Ventures

Ben is the Founder and Managing Partner of Oncology Ventures, a Seed-stage venture fund focused on investing into data-driven cancer start-ups. The fund is backed by strategic LPs including City of Hope and NY Cancer & Blood Specialists.

Prior, Ben was a Vice President at Optum Ventures and the 1st employee at Alpha Partners.

Ben has also helped build a value-based cancer technology start-up (health plan partnerships and operations at Thyme Care).
