

Anthony Masotto
EVP and General Manager
Drex

Anthony Masotto, a seasoned Pharmacy professional, assumes the role of Executive Vice President and General Manager at Drex Pharmacy. With over a decade of extensive experience in the pharmaceuticals industry, Anthony leads with a client-centric mentality, genuinely prioritizing the savings Drex provides to both its members and clients. His expertise spans Sales, Insurance, Account Management, Leadership, and Health Insurance, as he remains steadfast in driving business growth and cultivating strategic partnerships.

Having earned a Bachelor of Arts degree focused on International Business from Colgate University, Anthony has honed his skills through various roles at esteemed organizations including Sunlife Financial Remedy Analytics, and ELMCRx. His dedication to the self-funded community and broker distribution channel has been instrumental in providing nationwide pharmacy cost containment solutions.

Anthony is an active member of prestigious industry associations such as the Self-Insurance Institute of America and the Society of Professional Benefit Administrators. His expertise and leadership have solidified his reputation as a trusted authority in the field, making him an invaluable asset to Drex Pharmacy and the pharmaceuticals industry as a whole.