

Elliot Meena
Vice President
Ansley Capital Group

Elliot Meena joined Ansley Capital as a Vice President in 2016. With over 10 years of experience in the Financial Services, Investment Banking, and Information Technology industries, Elliot's diverse background brings a unique and valuable skill-set to Ansley.

Prior to joining Ansley, Elliot managed the Corporate Development team for Blackbaud (NASDAQ: BLKB) where he was responsible for acquisition strategy and product profitability implementation across the $200M SaaS and Payment Services portfolio; and most recently served as the Chief Financial Officer for Everyday Hero, a crowdfunding platform owned by Blackbaud, where he focused on driving consumer engagement through behavioral and digital marketing analytics.

Elliot began his career with Morgan Stanley on the Institutional Corporate Development team. During his time at Morgan Stanley, Elliot implemented and oversaw a collaborative project management process across Operations, IT, and Finance dedicated to improving the transparency of a $250M budget, and skill-set utilization of 400 employees globally, focused on streamlining operational activities supporting the $13B Sales & Trading business units.

After Morgan Stanley, Elliot joined the Investment Banking division of Dahlman Rose & Co. (acquired by Cowen Group) on the Natural Resource team. At Dahlman Rose, Elliot supported the execution of $2B+ of sell-side, buy-side, and equity transactions for both public and private companies with valuations ranging from $10M – $3B.

Elliot is a FINRA Registered Representative, holding both a Series 63 and Series 79 license, and earned a BS and MBA from the University of Florida. During his undergraduate career at Florida, he was an Academic All-SEC recipient and Captain of the Varsity Swim Team.
