

Brian Scott
VP of Employer Stop Loss & Chief Underwriter
RGA Reinsurance Company

Brian Scott is VP of Employer Stop Loss and Chief Underwriter for RGA. Brian has nearly 20 years of experience working in healthcare finance throughout the US and has previously had leadership roles in underwriting, consulting, business development, and operations at UnitedHealthcare, Lockton, and Voya. Brian is keenly interested in health care policy, care for those with complex conditions (treatment and payment), emerging therapies, and effective group health plan strategies. He has done extensive work with stop-loss carriers, administrators, networks, PBMs, and other vendors solutions throughout the industry, and believes American workers and their families deserve the best care available without the systemic costs that have been reached by the status quo too much of the time.

Brian holds a BA in Business Management from the University of Saint Thomas, lives in the suburbs of Minneapolis with his family, and strives to stay active, get outside, volunteer, and connect with the community.
